

Entry Conditions

Women older than 18 are allowed to participate

The participants are not allowed to have a pro-licence.

The participants have to fill out the registration form completely and the questionnaire (as good as they can). The complete name, date of birth and country from the registration will be published. All further details will be published over the questionnaire.

The athletes have to hand in the following photos on which they have to be recognized clearly:

- portrait-photo
- photo in bikini or bathing suit

The photos have to show the actual shape of the athlete.

All the stated data have to correspond to the truth. All sent pictures have to correspond to the registered person. There are only photos allowed the athlete owns the rights of, especially there may not be water-marks on the pictures from external companies or websites.

The application-deadline is from December 1st, 2011 until January 30th, 2012.

The Online Voting is possible from February 1st, 2012 to February 28th, 2012. Subsequent the participants for the final round will be notified in writing. The Online Voting is not visible publicly and will be shown after the deadline.

The two winners of Miss FIBO POWER Beauty receive their own series of photos in Sportrevue.

The athletes which will be on places 1 to 3 (each class) have to be for an hour at the booth from IronMaxx (sponsor of this event). Athletes are only allowed to wear neutral clothing (without any other sponsor on it).

There is no legal entitlement for prizes.

There is no responsibility taken for the correctness of this information.